Dear Friends,

Today we celebrate the great Feast of Pentecost—the gift of the Holy Spirit to the Apostles (Acts of the Apostles Ch. 2). We regard this as the birthday of the church, where, once strengthened and empowered by the Spirit, the Apostles go forth preaching and teaching about Jesus. The Gift of the Holy Spirit, however, is not simply something that happened in history. The Holy Spirit continues to inspire and enliven and has done so through history.

One of the gifts of my sabbatical time was the ability to take the time to enter into some of the religious traditions of our faith. These traditions show how the Holy Spirit continues to enter into our lives and move us to do God’s work. Today I want to write about my encounters with St. Francis and the Franciscan tradition and St. Ignatius and the Jesuit tradition. These are my reflections, certainly not intended as a history of or exhaustive study.

One of the retreat centers I visited was San Damiano, run by the Franciscans near Danville, California. We had the opportunity to reflect on the San Damiano cross, from which Jesus spoke to Francis to “rebuild my Church.” Later I had the opportunity to enter into the real world application of that Tenderloin District of San Francisco, where the homeless are welcomed for respite shelter of the streets. We also went to St. Anthony Dining Room, which feeds 2000–3000 a day, as well as providing concierge-type services for those in need who are seeking employment or social services. One of the Franciscan characteristics promoted was a “both/and” instead of an “either/or” approach. This reflects St. Francis’s inclusive way and the living out of his universal call to love—and to love universally. This includes the Earth and all creatures within it. Sometimes we can forget that universal call to love when we set up our barriers or limitations.

Another sign of the Spirit in our tradition and lives is the Jesuit spirituality of St. Ignatius. During my time in Berkley, my spiritual director helped me through a modified 30-day retreat that is a highlight of the Spiritual Exercises of Ignatius. I know many parishioners enter into this and the mighty “examen” that helps us to live a reflective, thoughtful and intentional spirituality as a way of life.

These two men lived hundred of years apart and several hundred years ago. Still, we see how the Spirit is alive and well in the Church and in all of our lives.

Come Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love. Send forth your Spirit and they shall be created. And You shall renew the face of the earth.

O, God, who by the light of the Holy Spirit, did instruct the hearts of the faithful, grant that by the same Holy Spirit we may be truly wise and ever enjoy His consolations, Through Christ Our Lord. Amen.

God Bless,
Help Needed at SEM Pantry
Our friends at the SEM pantry, who served over 12,000 of our area neighbors last year, are seeking a cadre of volunteer drivers to provide back up to their regular drivers who pick up food from local donor merchants and deliver it to the pantry at 6446 Beechmont Ave. Volunteers would need access to a pickup truck, van, SUV or similar vehicle and be able to lift loads that are generally 30 lbs or less but can occasionally reach about 40 lbs. Most of the needs will fall on Mondays, Wednesdays & Fridays. If you would like to assist in this ministry, please contact Charlie Gentry of SEM at 513-300-8173 or at cegentryman@gmail.com. You may also contact Ed Brady of IHM at 232-8752 or at embrady@fuse.net. Thank you for your consideration.

Pope Francis Has Added a Memorial
Pope Francis has added a Memorial for “The Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of the Church” to the General Roman Calendar. It will be celebrated each year on the Monday after Pentecost. This year it will fall on Monday, May 21.

Rosary in May
Join fellow parishioners any weekday evening during May, 7 p.m., as we gather in the Marian Garden, near the preschool building, to pray the Rosary for peace in our families, parishes and schools, archdiocese, Church, and world!

Perpetual Eucharistic Adoration (PEA)
Pray for peace...pray for your family. Certainly you have a reason to pray. Spend an hour with the one who loves you enough to die for you. Experience the love, the calm and the peace in the presence of our Lord.

Hours of Adoration:
- Sunday 8 p.m. through Saturday 12 p.m. (except during Masses)

Exposition of the Eucharist:
The Eucharist will be exposed in the Monstrance every Thursday. Thursdays the Eucharist will be exposed after the 8:15 a.m. Mass and will be reposed at 4 p.m.

If you have questions, please contact Kathie Hayes: ihm-adoration@fuse.net or 513-202-3009.

Information Needed!
We recently received a donation with no donor information enclosed. If you have recently made a donation from your Wells Fargo account, please contact Tammy Haynes at 388-4183 or tammyh@ihom.org.

*We will accept a limited number of incoming 9th graders as part of a freshman peer leadership training program.

The Descent of the Holy Spirit—Acts 2:1–41
Even after Christ's death the Holy Spirit works all things in us through Mary. In fact, what the Creator said to the serpent in reference to the Immaculata, “She will crush your head” [cf. Gn 3:15], is, according to the teaching of theologians, to be understood to have no limitations of time. It is the task of the Holy Spirit to form the new members of those predestined to the Mystical Body of Christ until the end of the world. But, as [St.] Louis Grignon de Montfort demonstrates, this work is brought to fruition with Mary, in Mary, and through Mary. (KW 1229)

For more information about this apostolate please visit http://www.cincinnativocations.org/additional-resources/spiritual-motherhood-of-priests/

Pentecost
Today as we celebrate Pentecost, the Holy Spirit wants to make us advocates of God’s presence to bring new life to others, especially those who do not know the love of God in their lives.

Your gift in the St. Vincent de Paul poor box will help the poor to believe in the mystery of God’s love for them.

Pentecostés
Hoy, al celebrar Pentecostés, el Espíritu Santo quiere hacernos defensores de la presencia de Dios para dar nueva vida a los demás, especialmente a aquellos que no conocen el amor de Dios en sus vidas.

Su donación en la caja de los pobres de San Vicente de Paul ayudará a los pobres a creer en el misterio del amor de Dios por ellos.
