FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Friends,

Today we enter into the great season of Advent. During this time we are called to prepare for the Lord's coming, coming at Christmas, coming at the end of time and coming into our hearts and lives now.

We can prepare best for the first two by focusing on how we can prepare ourselves best now. We can ask ourselves some questions to help us:

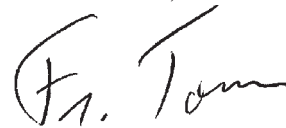

- 1 How are we doing with our prayer? We need to prioritize this time.
- 2 Where can I serve best? Where can we do something so we can work to see the face of Jesus in others and help them to see Jesus in our actions? We have so many great opportunities here at IHM to serve the Lord in our service to others.
- 3 When is the best time for me to be silent? Quiet time for prayer and reflection helps us in so many ways. Maybe I can spend some time in Adoration to gain the Lord's peace.
- 4 Where do I need to prepare my heart through forgiveness? This forgiveness is both our forgiving and asking God for forgiveness in the Sacrament of Reconciliation. This great Sacrament deals with healing where we need to be healed in our relationships with God and one another.

This weekend is the appeal for the Retirement for Religious collection. We welcome Sr. Carole Temming RSM and Br. Edward Kesler CFP, who will be speaking before our Masses. Please be as generous as you can next weekend for this collection to help those who have given their lives in the service of God's people.

Next weekend, December 8, we will have our annual celebration of Our Lady of Guadalupe. Our Hispanic community re-enacts Our Blessed Mother's appearance to Juan Diego at the 1:30 p.m. Mass. There will be a great convivencia celebration following Mass. All are invited to come and celebrate. Bring a dish, too, to add to the celebration if you can. This is one of the 75th Anniversary events we are highlighting during our year celebration.

Thank you for all you do to make our parish such a special place.

God Bless,

Fr. Tom

Annual Veterans Day Celebration at IHM School

On Thursday, November 7th IHM School celebrated their annual Veterans Day celebration to honor the Veterans in our IHM School community and beyond.

Students led Mass, including patriotic songs, for all Veterans in attendance. After Mass, a special blessing was prayed upon the Veterans by Fr. Jeff, along with petitions prepared by students and the recitation of the Pledge of Allegiance.

As is the tradition, our students were led out of Mass by bag pipes and a color guard. Veterans then enjoyed a breakfast sponsored by our IHM PTO and a Veterans Day music recital by our 4th Grade students.

Thank you for all the staff and volunteers for the preparations for this wonderful celebration and THANK YOU to our Veterans!

Here are the additional opportunities only for Advent 2019 beginning 12/1:

Wednesdays—7–8:30 a.m.

Saturday Mornings—8:45–9:30 a.m. (unless there is a funeral)

Tuesday, 12/10 at 7 p.m.—Communal Penance Service @GA

Our normal times:

Tuesday—6:30–7 p.m.

Saturday—3:30–4:30 p.m.

Fathers Team

Come to Fathers Team on Friday, Dec 6th, at the IHM Welcome Center (2d Floor on the South End of the Bldg) when the topic is "How to parent effectively against Materialism". Does it seem as if materialism is the dominant theme on TV and on the Internet during the Christmas Season? Is it difficult to help your children see that "Jesus is the Reason" to celebrate Christmas? Even during the course of the normal year, do you have to battle with your kids who want the latest trends and the most popular brands? Is materialism creating an atmosphere of greed in your Family? How do you combat this ubiquitous reality in our culture?

Transforming Jail Ministry Cookies Needed

Our volunteer chaplains deliver more than 1,200 dozen of homemade goodness to all the jail facilities in Hamilton County, Ohio on Christmas Eve and Christmas Day. Each incarcerated person receives a bag of cookies and assurance that someone is thinking about and praying for them over the holidays. A similar thing is done for Corrections Officers a few days earlier.

Our IHM prison ministry team asks for your help by baking cookies.

If possible, decorate the cookies to be festive-looking! Please pray while baking for the incarcerated and corrections officers. Examples:

1. Sugar cookies with sprinkles, decorated cut sugar cookies, colored M&Ms
2. Oatmeal with raisins or craisins, or any regular sized cookie

Regular size is approximately 2-3", so that 6 cookies fit comfortably in a sandwich bag. Uniformity is desired so that everyone feels the same amount of appreciation. In other words, please avoid baking any cookies that could create jealousy between inmates (candy, fudge, etc.). Allow cookies to cool and dry completely before delivering. Tins and containers cannot be stored or returned (please do not send us valuable containers you would like to receive back)

Drop Off at the IHM Welcome Center by Friday December 20, 12 noon.

Christmas is a very long, lonely day. In Hamilton County, as well as many jails around the country, visitations are not permitted on holidays. Transforming Jail Ministry volunteers are friendly faces on those days and, even if you don't like the coconut cookies, our visit breaks up the day. While a bag of cookies is a small thing, it's also a metaphor. One that matters.

Fair Trade Products On Sale Next Weekend in the Fatima Room

Stock up for the Christmas holidays

Fair Trade coffee, K-Cups, cocoa, chocolate bars and olive oil will be on sale in the Fatima room next weekend after all Masses.

Please take this opportunity to stock up on extra fair trade products for entertaining and gifts.

Buying Fair Trade products ensures small farmers in developing countries get a fair price for their products, have access to affordable credit and are able to support their families. Thank you for buying Fair Trade products and helping plant the seeds of hope while enjoying a delicious product.

Senior Heritage Luncheon

December's Christmas Sing-A-Long for the Senior Heritage Luncheon will be on Thursday, December 12 in Heritage. Warm up during this Advent Season with a delicious meal and holiday singing with Julie Stinchcomb and Julie Spangler. Please bring a plate of cookies to share and RSVP at the Parish Office.
